Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

The 'Word of God' is the most productive seed among all seeds in the world because there is no chaff in it. The Gospel of today ends with the same truth proclaimed by Jesus Himself, "Today, this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing". Yes, the portion of the scripture that Jesus read at the synagogue is being fulfilled today through Jesus. The book of Prophet Isaiah is one of the Old Testament books, and we see the completion of it in the New Testament. The Old Testament reaches its completion only in the New Testament and all what is said in the Old Testament is completed in Jesus. For this same reason Jesus says, "I came not to abolish the laws and the prophets, but to fulfill them. Yes, the fulfillment of the book of Prophet Isaiah is fulfilled in Jesus and that is what we see in the ministry of Jesus. He brought Good News too many people. He brought liberty to captives of different kinds, sick people, sinful people, and evil processed people. Even from death through His resurrection. He also gave sight to the blind. Thus, we see the scripture fulfillment in Jesus. Yes, Jesus brought salvation to all of us and we are all sharing the joy of that salvation by virtue of the sacrament of Baptism and pledge to share the same joy of salvation with everyone we meet. But looking deep into our hearts how many of us can say that we are enjoying and share the Joy of salvation brought by Jesus with others?

Dear friends, if we were faithful in our pledge, we should not have created a world at present. Yes, we lack the presence of the person who has fulfilled or to say still we are in bondage. So today, our task is to open our hearts to receive Him through His Word and get liberated ourselves. In the Gospel, we see after reading the passage the reaction of the people is not impressive, because Jesus is declaring a revolution here. As we know in Jesus' time, every sickness and problems of the people were always linked with sins and so they were all considered low grade people in the community. Old Testament law and prophets never tried to understand the feelings of suffering people. But today, Jesus is bringing an end to that by saying, "Today, this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing". Dear friends, it is the duty of the church and duty of every one of us, what can we do for it?

Pope Francis reminds all of us about the same mission by saying that, "The Church should function as a multispecialty hospital, where everyone can come and receive needed treatment". Thus, the church should take care of the integral well-being of her children. If the Church is a Hospital, let us not forget our role, each one of us are doctors and nurses in this Hospital of church. So during this Holy Eucharist, let us ask the Grace of God to enlighten us so that we will be faithful workers in His Kingdom towards the fulfillment of the Mission. God Bless!
