Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

As Christians, we know that the central figure of all our liturgical celebrations is none other than Jesus Christ. Last weekend, we celebrated the solemnity of Holy Family, and the Holy Mother Church reminded us that it is the presence of Jesus, who is the important figure of the Holy Family. A couple of days before, we had a beautiful celebration of Christmas where we reflected about the extra ordinary birth of Jesus. Thus the real purpose of all these special liturgical celebrations is to invite us to experience and manifest the presence of Jesus through our lives.

The celebration we have today is the Epiphany of the Lord or the manifestation of Jesus as the savior of the world. Today, as we celebrate the solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord, we have three wise men coming from the East to visit Jesus. It is important to note here that these wise men are not Jews, but they are Gentiles. The King Herod was a Jew, the chief priests and the scribes of the people were among Jews, but none of them cared about the birth of Jesus. This is what the Gospel of John 1:11 says "He came to His own people, and even they rejected Him". Dear friends, this comment of Jesus and the visit of these three wise men of Gentiles, are placing a great challenge before each one of us. How do we respond to the call of God?

Every day or every weekend we come together as Christ's people to celebrate this beautiful sacrament of the Eucharist, but do we really experience Jesus in our lives and manifest His presence through our lives that Jesus is our Savior? Yes, Jesus is coming to us through every sacrament, but Jesus is making this comment, "He came to His own people, and even they rejected Him". The wise men looked for Jesus and they found Him. What are we looking for through our celebrations? Let us not forget the experience of Joseph and Mary on missing Jesus during the celebrations in Jerusalem Temple. The arrival of three wise men from East is unfolding many truths about Jesus. Their question to King Herod, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews", very clearly affirms that there are different kingdoms; King Herod represents the earthly kingdom, and Jesus represents the Heavenly Kingdom. This is what Jesus says in the Gospel of John 18:36, "My Kingdom is not of this world". This is what we read in Philippians 3:20, "Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ".

Dear friends, now who is the king in our life? Let our thoughts, words and actions manifest the king of our lives! Again the gifts of three wise men, adds the qualities of Jesus. They had the gift of Gold in their hands, normally offered to kings, thus they proclaimed to the world that Jesus is the King. They had the gift of frankincense, normally used for religious rituals, thus they proclaimed to the world that Jesus is the priest and He is the High priest in the New Testament. Finally, they had the gift of Myrrh, normally used for the dead. We are all born to live, but in the case of Jesus, He is born to die, and through His death He is promising a new Life, an everlasting Life. Thus we see, three wise men offered their gifts and did Him homage and had the experience and the vision of God and thus departed for their country by another way.

Dear friends, as we participate in this Holy Mass, let us diligently look for Jesus and a personal encounter with Him, so that our offering of this Mass will be acceptable to Him and we may receive more and more blessings in our lives. May the Good Lord Bless you.
