Parish Council Meeting – Tuesday, February 23, 2016, at 6:30 p.m.

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

Though science and technology have developed so much in this present world, still some things in this world remain mysterious; the mystery of God, the mystery of man, the mystery of evil, the mystery of death etc. The mysterious nature of all these things give us the message that all things are not in our control. At this point of time, as a believer, we call it by saying this is the way of the Lord. This is the same the Lord says in Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways". Yes, God can change the life of any one of us at any time which is unreasonable and unbelievable to human eyes, that is the mystery of God. To accept this mystery of God, we need a true faith in Him.

When we go through the Bible, we can see there were many instances where God is changing the life of so many people in an unexpected way. Moses was a man with a speech problem, but God made him to lead the people of Israel. David was a shepherd and God made him a King. Jeremiah confessed himself as a small boy, but God made him one of the greatest prophets. Many other prophets and kings in the Old Testament were ordinary people, and God changed their lives for the Kingdom of God. When we come to the New Testament, we can see Mary our Mother was an ordinary woman, but when she said "yes" to the Lord, that made her blessed among women in the world. Look at the disciples, they were just ordinary fishermen, but when they said "yes", there happens a drastic change in their lives for the Kingdom of God. Yes, the call of God is a call to live differently which is different from human understanding. The same type of unexpected transformations we can see in Jesus' life and it is well expressed through the reaction of the people.

Last weekend, Jesus caught the attention of many people in the synagogue by reading and interpreting the word of God. Though they appreciated Jesus for His preaching, they were not willing to receive those words into their hearts because of their prejudice so they begin to raise so many questions about Jesus. Dear friends, "True Faith never questions, but accepts everything". The Gospel very clearly mentions that Jesus could not do many miracles in His own hometown because of their lack of faith.

Dear friends, as human beings we often approach God with lots of prejudice in our lives, but through the Gospel of today, Jesus invites all of us to remove all kinds of prejudice from our lives and in our relationship with Him so that we may receive more and more graces and blessings in our lives. The book of James 4:10 reminds us that "Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor". Thus during this Holy Eucharist, let us humbly surrender ourselves to the Mercy of God so that as God lifted up prophets and Kings for Israel; ordinary fishermen into disciples of Him, we also will be lifted up for the greater glory of God. Blessings!
