Rules for fasting and abstinence in the United States are:

- Every person between the age of 18 and 60 must fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Parish Council Meeting – Tuesday, February 23, 2016, at 6:30 p.m.

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

Tracing the Cross on our forehead with Ashes this last Wednesday, we officially started our Lenten season, and we prayed to the Lord “Be Merciful O Lord, for we have sinned”. Yes, by requesting the mercy of God, most of us have made up our mind to walk a little differently than what we were walking, thinking, talking and living through the practice of fasting, prayer and alms giving. On this first Sunday of Lent, the Gospel reminds us that the decided new way of life is not going to be easy, for “...your great enemy devil is wandering around like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour”. So appropriately it is said ‘watch on your thoughts when you are alone and watch on your words when you are in groups’.

To remind us about the importance of being watchful about temptations, the Gospel presents to us the three important temptations that Jesus had to face in His life. These three temptations include all the temptations a human being can have in his or her life time. Jesus was tempted by bodily desires. He was tempted by power. He was tempted by the desire to amaze others.

The first temptation to Jesus was to transform stone into bread and eat. The first sin in the Bible came to be in regard to the food in the Garden of Eden. In the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve ate the apple and surrendered themselves to death of sin. But here, Jesus did not surrender Himself for bread, for He said “Man does not live by bread alone”. Later, we see Jesus offered Himself for each one of us and He became bread for all of us that brings us an everlasting life. Yes, feel the pain of starving through fasting and share that meal to the hungry.

The second temptation to Jesus was more political and power oriented, provided Jesus should worship Satan. But Jesus responded by saying, “You shall worship the Lord your God, and him alone shall you serve”. When we go through the Gospel, we can see the disciples had more inclination for more power and authority, and they even fought each other for this power and authority. But for Jesus, the greatest power was His Love for God and people. This is why in the Passion narrative Jesus reminds Pontius Pilate that His power comes from God. Yes, the same power is given to each one of us through the sacrament of Baptism, the power to serve God and others. Be Kind and generous to others through Alms giving.

The third temptation to Jesus was more religious and here Jesus is asked to throw Himself down from the parapet of Jerusalem temple. But Jesus says, “You shall not put the Lord, your God to the test”. This invites us to have more confidence in our prayer and in our God that our God will grant us everything that we need in our lives. This is what Mathew 21:22 says “if you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer”. So let our prayers be sincere to deepen our love for God and thus be away from all kinds of temptations of our lives. For Mathew 17:21 says “This kind of devils will go only by prayer and fasting”.

So during this Holy Eucharistic celebration, let us seek the grace of God to become more powerful against all kinds of temptations of this world through fasting, prayer and almsgiving. Blessings!
