Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

After having witnessed a great crowd following them in last weekend's Gospel, Jesus commented, "They were like sheep without a shepherd". In today's Gospel, we see being a good shepherd, Jesus is feeding more than 5000 people with food both physically and spiritually. Last week, everyone was reminded that we are all called to be a good shepherd in our own circle, and today, we are encouraged to reflect whether we are a good shepherd or not. As parents, I am sure everyone is concerned about the physical growth of their children, but how much attention are we giving to the spiritual growth of our children? Yes, as Christian parents, it is one of our primary responsibilities to ensure Christian education for our children. Jesus not only makes the comment but acts upon it by feeding the people both physically and spiritually. Thus He is a good Shepherd.

In the Gospel, it is clearly mentioned two times Jesus raised His eyes. The first time Jesus raised His eyes, He saw a large crowd was coming to Him. Yes, it was their faith in Jesus that made them follow Him, and as a true shepherd, in the first sight itself, Jesus could understand their need, even without their asking. So Jesus asks Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" Yes dear friends, when we follow Jesus faithfully, this is what happens even without our asking He provides not according to our desire, but according to our need. Be sure dear friends, God always thinks about us and our need, but do we always think about God and His needs? If we always think about God, be sure we will never lose sight of our brothers and sisters and their need. If we cannot live and act according to the need of the situation, Psalm 135 has the right answer by saying, "They have mouths, but they do not speak, they have eyes, but they do not see, they have ears, but they do not hear..."

The second time, Jesus raised His eyes was for praising and thanking God. As human beings, we have more than enough reasons to thank God, but do we thank God enough? The Psalm 116:12 says, "What shall I return to the Lord for all His goodness to me?" Very often, we are all familiar with thanking God for the things that we have and making complaints about the little things that we do not have. Here we see more than 5000 people, and Jesus is taking just five loaves of bread and two fish, thanking and praising God, and the greatest miracle of all time happens. The Gospel says they all ate and were satisfied. Yes, dear friends, having a satisfied life in today's world is a miracle and challenge for each one of us. For this miracle of a satisfied life, let us follow the example of our Good Shepherd and begin to thank and praise God for everything that He has done for us, is doing for us and will be doing for us. As you receive the Holy Eucharist in your hands, forget not to raise your eyes to Heaven for the gift of it. May the Eucharist give you a cheerful heart and satisfied life in Christ. God Bless you all.

Sacrament of Baptism: *The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is administered upon request. Parents and Godparents must attend an evening class on Baptism in the Catholic Church. Please contact the pastor and set up an appointment for this class at least a month in advance. Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick: The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is celebrated upon request, and at least four times a year at all the weekend Masses. Please notify the pastor or call the parish office if you know of anyone who might need this sacrament, but may not be able to notify the pastor personally. Please inform the pastor if you or any one in your family is in the hospital. If you notify us before surgery, we can celebrate this sacrament before you are admitted to the hospital. If your doctor is willing, we can also have a blessing for him/her at the time of your anointing.

Sacraments to the Home Bound: Please inform the pastor if you know of anyone who is homebound so that we can insure that they are afforded ample opportunities to receive the Sacraments. We would rather be notified by several people than to not be notified at all, so please don't presume that someone else has already notified us.

Sacrament of Marriage: *A couple wishing to marry must contact the priest at least six months prior to the desired wedding date. According to the guidelines of our diocese, you should not make absolute plans for a specific wedding date until after meeting with the priest.
