Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

Last weekend's Gospel ended with Jesus calling people to follow Him, and we noticed that two people who were called by Jesus expressed their willingness to follow Him with certain conditions of fulfilling certain obligations in their lives. But Jesus reminded them that following Him is not a part time job, but it is a full time job. Following him is not a secondary thing in life but it is the primary thing in life.

When we go through the Bible, while the synoptic Gospels (Mathew, Mark & Luke) speak about the mission of the 12 apostles, only Luke mentions a second mission of 72. The Jews always believed that there were 72 nations in the whole world, thus, by sending 72 elders in pairs means Jesus sends out his missionaries to the entire world. When we talk about the mission of the 12, it is always misunderstood that it represents only the mission of the Pope, Cardinals, Bishops and priests who are the descendants of 12 apostles in today's world. But today, by sending 72 elders to the mission by Jesus, we are encouraged to believe that the mission is interested not only to the apostles, but also to each one of us who profess their faith in Jesus. So it is a call for you and me to go and preach the good news of peace to the world.

Yes, the world is crying for the good news of peace, but today, that peace is in different pieces as is the world and the people. Yes, every one of us are commissioned today to preach the good news of peace and unity and what do we do to materialize the mission of Jesus? Yes, that is what we pray in the prayer for Peace of St. Francis of Assisi.

"Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

It is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

Yes, my dear friends, it is easy to pray this prayer, but it is not that easy to live this prayer in our daily lives and that is why we see peace in pieces.

As Christians, Jesus reminds us that it is our primary responsibility to establish peace. Yes, we need to work towards achieving this peace in this world, Jesus promises no safety in this world, but He assures our safety in the Kingdom of God. Are you ready for it? God Bless!
