18th Sunday in Ordinary Time Luke 12:13-21

J.R.R. Tolkien is famous for writing the Lord of the Rings, The Hobbit, and other short stories. Tolkien was a faithful Catholic war veteran, who sought to create a myth that would help others to live the Catholic faith. Tolkien once wrote: "There is nothing like looking if you want to find something. You certainly usually find something, if you look, but it is not always quite the something you were after." He wrote this in the Hobbit as he described the adventures of one Bilbo Baggins. Mr. Baggins was a hobbit, a creature who enjoyed the comfort of home and food, that was coerced into a grand adventure fighting dragons, trolls, and goblins. Mr. Baggins began his endeavor seeking excitement. Instead, he found that it was an adventure filled with turmoil, conflict, hardship, and friendship. At the end he found that he developed a strong friendship with those he traveled with. He found something greater than what he expected at the beginning. He found a treasure that was more than what he sought. In essence, the Catholic faith is a similar experience. We begin through our baptism seeking something. What we may seek, or desire often begins one thing, but then at the end of our journey we find that we have found something much greater than what we began looking for. This week it might be helpful to ask ourselves what we are seeking in this great adventure.

In Christ,
Fr. Will Thompson J.C.L.

Sacraments to the Home-Bound

Please inform the pastor or the parish office if you know of anyone who is home-bound, so that we can insure that they are afforded ample opportunities to receive the Sacraments. We would rather be notified by several people than to not be notified at all, so please don't presume that someone else has already notified us.
