Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

We all experience imperfection, brokenness, temptation and sin. We know, this is not the way God planned it for us. God had/has a wonderful plan for all of us that, God created everything good. The book of Genesis tells us that everything changed with the first sin of Adam and Eve, and that affected everything since. Our first reading today reminds us of that, “For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world.”

But God can turn everything to good, provided we use the remedy given by our heavenly Father to each of us personally, and the remedy is Jesus. Jesus is the solution to our imperfection, brokenness, temptation and sin. In the second reading today, Paul writes about it this way, “you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that for your sake he became poor although he was rich, so that by his poverty you might become rich.” So Paul says that Christ wants to lift us up, as he says “so that by his poverty you might become rich.”

Yes, Jesus wants to lift us up from imperfection, brokenness, temptations and sin, not only in the next life but right now. Jesus wants us to have the fullness of His life in all of us now, and this is what we see in the Gospel today. The synagogue official Jairus’ daughter died and Jesus raised her to life again. The woman afflicted with hemorrhage for 12 years was cured when she touched Jesus’ cloak. Through these miracles Jesus is teaching us that, He wants us to enjoy His life here and now, not to wait until eternal life.

Through these both healing miracles, Jesus reminds us that, we will be able to enjoy His life in us only through the power of faith. Jesus said to the woman afflicted with hemorrhages for 12 years, “your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.” He says to synagogue official Jairus, “Do not be afraid, just have faith.” In the case of woman afflicted with hemorrhages, we see Jesus embarrass her in public, asking who touched him, making her afraid? The reason is that; He wants the public to know that she is healed. She was considered unclean in Jewish thinking. When someone was unclean it meant he or she could not worship with the community. The woman could not go to the temple for twelve years. Anything she touched would also be considered unclean. If she was young and married she could not have children because if she touched anyone, even her husband, he also would be unclean. So when the woman was healed by touching Jesus’ cloak, not only was she physically healed, but in every way. She was healed socially, psychologically and spiritually. Now everyone knows she can worship with them again, she can socialize with them again, and if she is young and married she can have children. Jesus has completely changed her life, He gave her a new life again.

In the house of Jairus Jesus said the child was not dead but asleep. Jesus said to her, “Little girl, I tell you, arise.” Jesus says to each of us, “Don’t go through life asleep, arise.” We see something in common in both miracles; someone went to Jesus in faith, the little girl’s father and the woman. When there are problems, go to Jesus with faith. Don’t stay where you are, get up and go to Jesus. How can we go to Jesus? We can go to Jesus through prayer, reading the Bible, sacraments etc., So Jesus says to us, “come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.” So, as believers in Jesus Christ, let us not make Jesus as our last option in our needs but let Him be the first option and thus enjoy our life in its fullness with Christ. God Bless.
